

Code of Conduct

Seattle Green Lake Triathlon Group (SGLTG) will conduct its business honestly and ethically wherever we operate. We will constantly improve the quality of our services and operations and create a reputation for honesty, fairness, respect, integrity and sound business judgment. The ethical performance of the SGLTG is the sum of the ethics of the members of the group. Thus, we are all expected to adhere to high standards of personal integrity.

Basic guidelines

1. Officers, directors and members will obey all Equal Employment Opportunity laws and act with respect and responsibility towards others in all of their dealings.
2. Always show respect and appreciation for the volunteers who give their time to help the club and or events
3. Never yell, taunt, or threaten physical violence upon another member of the club, a volunteer or event spectator
4. Never use abusive or vulgar language, or make racial, ethnic or gender related slurs or derogatory comments at club events
5. Sexual Harassment. Defined as unwelcome sexual conduct, whether verbal or physical, including, among other things, sexual advances, demands for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, whether or not it was designed or intended to promote an intimate relationship is prohibited.

Always report violations of the Member Code of Conduct policy to the Executive team.